APPLICATION FOR THE CHAMPIONSHIPS

Only members who are registered in the ITF database and have an 'Active' membership status are eligible to be registered by their National Governing Bodies (NGBs) for the European Championships.

All applications for the championships, including accommodation and tournament registration, must be submitted exclusively through the ITF official online platform. You can access the championship page and complete your registration at the following link:

<https://data.taekwondo-itf.com/event/21663/8764>

PRELIMINARY REGISTRATION

A deposit of €250 per person must be paid along with your initial registration, no later than 10th February 2025. This must be made via bank transfer; no other payment methods will be accepted. All deposits are non-refundable.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Due to several fraudulent attempts in previous years to take money from National Governing Bodies & EITF the IBAN number and other bank details will not be published in this General Info Pack.

You are invited to contact the organisers via the official email stated below, sending the details about the numbers of participants, package required, and the number of nights you want to book, an invoice will then be sent to you with all necessary details for payment!

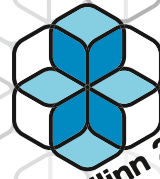

Official email -

Tallinn2025@tkd.ee

Please always use this email address only, this will help us answer all your emails faster and keep you up to date with all important information during the preparation of the Championships.

E-mails sent to this address are automatically sent to the Tournament & Umpire Committee, Organizer and IT-provider and will be replied by a responsible person depending on your question or request.

EITF VIP

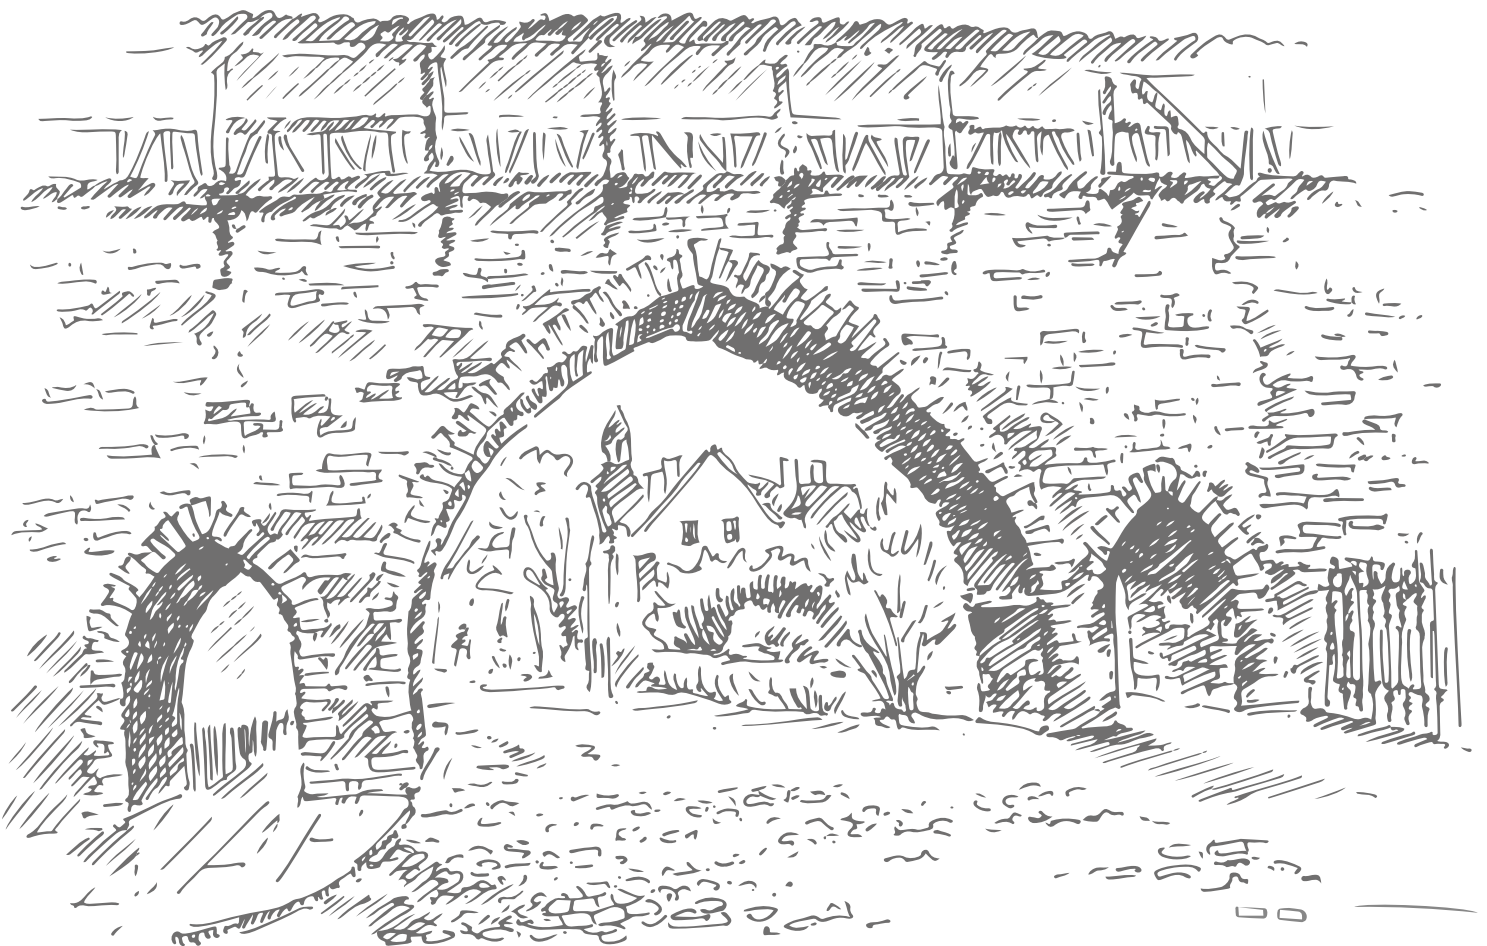

The National Governing Bodies cannot designate a VIP. Only invited persons from the EITF will be registered by the EITF T&UC and Local Organising Committee. NGB's are asked to confirm any nominated VIP registration - Tallinn2025@tkd.ee

UMPIRES

All umpires (invited & volunteers) must attend pre-competition refresher course and confirm their attendance by 10 th February via the official online registration application -

<https://data.taekwondo-itf.com/event/21663/8764>

The EITF will send a confirmation letter to each invited umpire personally.

FEES

The EITF annual fee: €200 per NGB (paid via bank transfer – EITF invoice) must be paid before arriving at registration for the Championships.

The Individual entry fee: €100 per competitor (to be paid in cash upon arrival, and the before weight check) for all registered competitors.

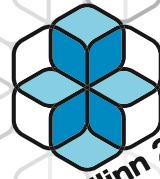

Team entry fee: €40 per team per discipline, including self-defence (to be paid in cash upon arrival, and the before weight check).

The Official ID card will permit participants to use the following services offered by the Tournament organisers:

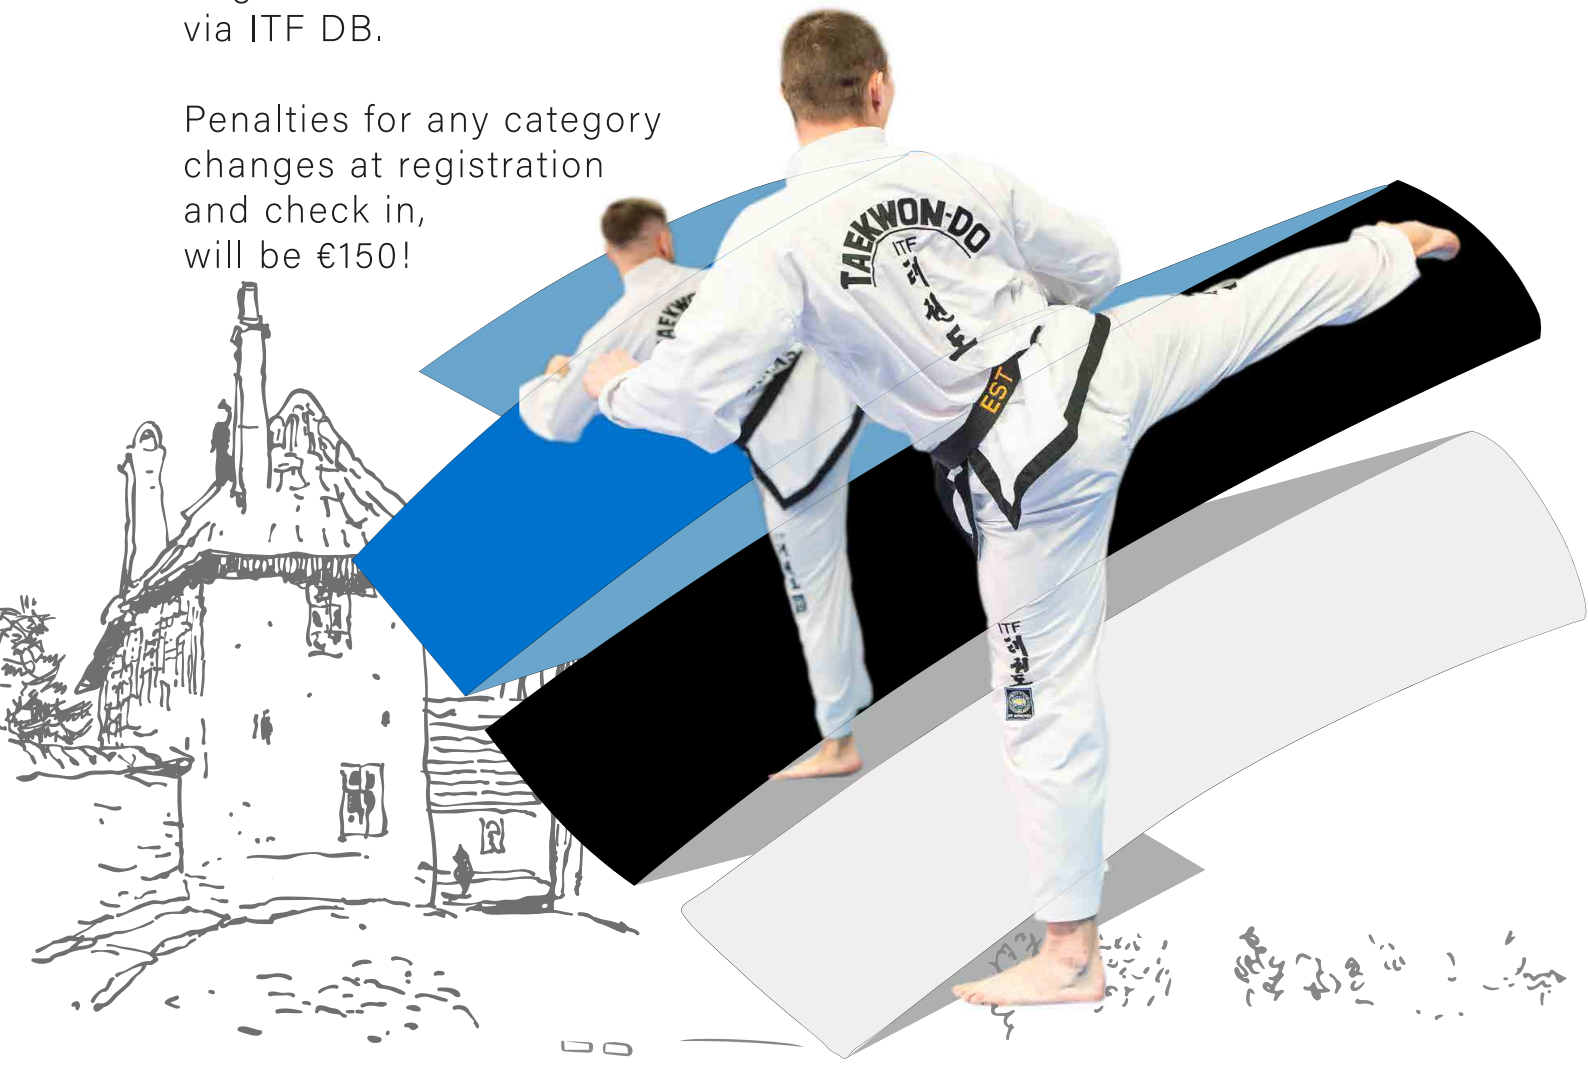

- Free access to opening ceremony, to the sports hall.
- Medical assistance for competitors injured during the competition.
- Transportation to and from the venue, airport etc.

Accreditation fee for participants using their own accommodation during their stay at the EITF Championship event is €350 per person. Registration for the event must still be done via ITF DB.

Penalties for any category changes at registration and check in, will be €150!

This Championship is conducted under the ITF rules as updated in 2023. Detailed information can be found on the EITF website at www.eitf-taekwondo.org

Children tournament (11-13 years), Junior Tournament (14-15 years), Youth U-18 Tournament (16-17 years), Adult Tournament (18 – 34 years), the Veteran Tournament (Silver and Gold).

Only Daedo-manufactured Doboks and equipment, such as sparring gear, are permitted. Random authenticity checks will be conducted during the championships. Participants found using counterfeit Daedo equipment will be disqualified.

COMMON ANTI-DOPING RULES APPLICABLE TO ALL:

Doping tests will be administered to selected male and female Adult competitors.

Please note that it is mandatory for all Junior, Youth, and Adult athletes and coaches to complete the relevant WADA eLearning course and possess a valid WADA Certificate. Certificates will be verified for authenticity, and participants found with counterfeit certificates will be disqualified.

Therapeutic Use Exemptions (TUE)

All athletes participating in the European Championship must ensure that any medication or treatment they require that falls under the WADA Prohibited List is covered by a valid Therapeutic Use Exemption (TUE).

Athletes must submit their TUE applications to the ITF Anti-Doping Committee no later than 30 days prior to the start of the championship. Failure to submit the required TUE documentation within this timeframe may result in ineligibility to compete if the medication or treatment is deemed non-compliant with anti-doping regulations.

For further information on TUE applications and requirements, please refer to the ITF Anti-Doping Rules or contact the ITF Anti-Doping Committee Chairman Master Derrick Chan at
